

Deadly Ways of Working

Deadly Ways of Working – Targeted Family Support (CR.007359)

This one day workshop has been developed based on the SNAICC reflective practice resource, titled “Stronger Safer Together”. The resource was developed after consultation from key Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander leaders and organisations.

Aim:

To build on existing knowledge and skills of staff to provide effective and targeted support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families.

Target group:

All Department of Communities staff and sector agencies

Training for

Staff

Sector

Objectives:

Putting it into practice - participants will develop their capacity to:

- Implement culturally safe work practices.
- Build trusting relationships and partnerships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families and communities.
- Engage with empathy and understanding when supporting Aboriginal people.
- Work effectively in partnership with Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisations, non-government organisations and government agencies

Pre-requisite:

The eLearning course Aboriginal Cultural Appreciation must be completed prior to attending this workshop. Access this via Compass.

Registration

Department staff must register through Compass. Sector staff and Carers must register online

2022.01.12

Learning and Development

