

The Adolescent Brain (Webinar)

Adolescence is a transitional phase between childhood and adulthood, a period of complex growth, change and development. It can be a challenging time for both the adolescent and the adults in their lives. It can also be an exciting and rewarding time for both. Come join this webinar to explore the amazing workings of the adolescent brain and see how we can use our relationships to support its growth.

Presenter: Isabell Georgiou

Venue: Webinar

Date / Time: Friday – 11th August 10:00am – 11.30am
